Northern Illinois University Supplemental Retirement Plan – 403(b)
Northern Illinois University sponsors the Northern Illinois University Supplemental Retirement Plan – Internal Revenue Code Section 403(b) Plan. All employees of Northern Illinois University that receive compensation reportable on a W-2, are eligible to voluntarily elect to invest a portion of their compensation to the Plan to supplement their retirement savings.

The Northern Illinois University 403(b) Plan allows employees to make tax-deferred (pre-tax) and/or Roth (after-tax) investment contributions with one of the two approved 403(b) vendors:

- Fidelity Investments
- TIAA

Tax-deferred 403(b) contributions are made on pre-tax basis and federal and state income taxes are deferred on contributions and earnings until a distribution is taken from the Plan. Roth 403(b) contributions are made on an after-tax basis and are included as taxable income at the time of contribution. Upon withdraw or distribution, earnings are tax free provided they meet the definition of a qualified distribution.

What is a 403(b) Plan?
A 403(b) Plan is a retirement savings plan available to employees of educational institutions and certain non-profit organizations. Employees can invest in any investment options offered by the vendor. Contributions to the Plan are made solely by the employee, and the employee is 100 percent vested in their account(s) at all times. There are no matching employer contributions to the Plan.

How much can I contribute to the 403(b) Plan?
Each calendar year the internal Revenue Service (IRS) establishes the maximum contribution allowance. The maximum total allowable 403(b) contributions (pre-tax and after-tax combined) for calendar year 2024 is:

- $23,000
- If the participant will be age 50 or older by the end of the 2024 calendar year, additional contributions of $7,500 can be made.

The 403(b) Plan allows for contributions to be in the form of a flat dollar amount or a percentage.
