In accordance with the Northern Illinois University Law (110 ILCS 685/30-45(2)) and, as applicable, the State Salary and Annuity Withholding Act (5 ILCS 365/1, et seq.), the Employer will, upon receiving the written authorization of any bargaining unit member, deduct from the compensation of that employee, any dues, payments, or contributions payable by such employee to the Union. Under such arrangement, an amount shall be deducted from each regular payroll period which is equal to the pro rata share of the annual dues, plus any payments or contributions, and the Employer will transmit such deductions to the Union within 10 working days from the time of the deduction. 12.6 If a bargaining unit member’s evaluation repeatedly falls below expectations, the chair or supervisor may meet with the bargaining unit member to discuss opportunities for improvement through remediation.

12.7 In the evaluation of teaching, student evaluations of instruction shall not be the sole measure. Annual evaluation policies shall specify other appropriate indicators of teaching effectiveness and their weight relative to student evaluations of instruction. In the evaluation of librarianship, the library’s evaluation policies shall specify appropriate indicators of performance.

12.8 For bargaining unit members on joint appointments, at the time of the initial joint appointment, the relevant departments or equivalent units shall specify in writing the procedures for the annual evaluation. The PERC’s recommendations shall be included with the Executive Vice President and Provost’s recommendations to the Board of Trustees.

16.6 A Board of Trustees decision concerning the elimination of any program that would result in the layoff of a bargaining unit member(s) shall be communicated to the bargaining unit member(s) in the affected program and to the Union Chapter President.
Article 17
FACULTY LAYOFFS

17.1 The Employer shall not lay off a bargaining unit member except:

   a. In the event of a declared financial exigency that is university-wide as provided in the Board of Trustees Regulations (Section II, Subsection G) as of the date of execution of this Agreement. Any and all amendments to the University Board of Trustees Regulations (Section II, Subsection G) shall not change the terms and conditions of this Agreement.

   b. In the event of Program Discontinuation or Elimination.

   c. For purposes of this section: “Program Discontinuation or Elimination” means the discontinuance or elimination of a program subject to review by the Program Elimination Review Committee, under the procedure in the Program Elimination Review Committee and Process Article in this Agreement.

17.2 In the event of a layoff(s) the Employer shall notify the Union and the bargaining unit member(s) to be affected by the layoff at least twelve (12) months before May 15th of the academic year in which the bargaining unit member(s) may be laid off. The notification shall specify the date of the layoff; provide an explanation of the basis for the decision to lay off the bargaining unit member(s); and explain to the bargaining unit member(s) their right to review the information underlying the decision, the procedures that were followed in making the decision, and the procedures that follow from the date of the notification.

17.3 In the event of a declared university-wide financial exigency resulting in a layoff of a bargaining unit member(s), the Union shall have the right to form a Layoffs Review Committee. The Layoffs Review Committee shall have the right to make written recommendations to the Provost and Board of Trustees.

17.4 Upon request by the Layoffs Review Committee, the Employer shall provide: at least five years of audited financial statements, approved current-year budget, and the following-year budget.
Article 17 (cont’d)

FACULTY LAYOFFS

17.5 In making its written recommendation, the Layoffs Review Committee may consider factors that include, but are not limited to, the following:

a. That all feasible alternatives have been pursued, including expenditure of one-time money or reserves as bridge funding, furloughs, pay cuts, deferred-compensation plans, early-retirement packages, deferral of nonessential capital expenditures, and cuts to non-educational programs and services, including expenses for administration;
b. Educational policy, including affirmative action and equity, and the bargaining unit member status.
c. The University’s financial condition.

17.6 For the bargaining unit member(s) who are affected by the layoff, the Employer shall seek to find an assignment for which the members are, or may become, professionally qualified. The Employer shall consider transfer or retraining as alternatives to layoff where justified by particular individual capabilities or skills and by program needs. The Employer maintains the discretion to make determinations regarding alternative assignments. If placement in another position would be facilitated by a reasonable period of training, financial and other support for such training shall be provided at the discretion of the Employer.

17.7 If layoffs occur, no new tenured, tenure-track, or non-tenure track instructional appointments shall take place in the affected program, with the following exceptions:

a. Extraordinary circumstances where the program would be placed in critical jeopardy;

b. A bargaining unit member agrees to accept a non-tenure track appointment.

Article 17 (cont’d)

17.9 Bargaining unit member layoffs undertaken for any of the reasons stated in Section 1 of this Article shall be subject to the following procedures:

   a. Part-time and temporary faculty in the affected program shall be laid off before bargaining unit members who have tenure-track appointments.

   b. Tenure-track bargaining unit members in the affected program who have not achieved tenure shall be laid off before tenured bargaining unit members.

   c. After following the procedures in 17.9 a. and 17.9 b., layoffs shall be made on the basis of total years of full-time service (including approved leaves) to the University in a bargaining unit position, with those who have served the fewest number of years being laid off first.

17.10 For three years after a layoff, the position occupied by the laid-off bargaining unit member shall not be filled by a replacement, unless the laid-off bargaining unit member has been offered reemployment, with at least thirty (30) working days in which to accept or decline the offer.

17.11 For three years after a layoff, the laid-off bargaining unit member(s) shall be notified, by the Employer, of all bargaining unit position(s) that are reasonably comparable to their former position, and shall offer that bargaining unit member such position(s). These recall from layoff offers shall take place in reverse order of the layoffs.

17.12 A bargaining unit member who is laid off shall continue to be eligible for the benefits of the state group insurance program and the State Universities Retirement System as allowed under the laws, rules, regulations, policies, and procedures governing the insurance program and/or the State Universities Retirement System.

Time spent laid off shall not count toward any part of a tenure track bargaining unit member's probationary period in case of recall from layoff.
Article 18
ACADEMIC FREEDOM AND RESPONSIBILITY

18.1 The Employer and the Union agree that academic freedom is one of the values essential to higher education.

18.2 Within the law, the Employer encourages full freedom of inquiry, discourse, teaching, research, and publication, and commits to protect any bargaining unit member against challenges, from within or without the University, which would restrict the member’s exercise of these freedoms. The following descriptions of academic freedom have been adapted from the 1940 AAUP Statement of Principles on Academic Freedom and Tenure with 1970 Interpretive comments.

a. Research. Bargaining unit members are entitled to full freedom in research and in the publication of the results, subject to the adequate performance of their other academic duties. But research for pecuniary return shall be based upon an understanding with the Employer.

b. Teaching. Bargaining unit members are entitled to freedom in the classroom in discussing their subject, but they should be careful not to persistently intrude matters into their teaching that are unrelated to their subject.

c. Public expressions. Bargaining unit members are citizens, members of a learned profession, and representatives of the University. When speaking or writing as citizens, they should be free from institutional censorship or discipline, but their special position in the community imposes special obligations. As scholars and faculty members, they should remember that the public may judge their profession and the University by their utterances; hence they should at all times be accurate, should exercise appropriate restraint, should show respect for the opinions of others, and should make every effort to indicate that they are not speaking for the institution.

18.3 Any dispute under this Article shall be resolved under Article 10 and all articles referred to by Article 10, of the By-Laws of the University, as these documents exist upon the execution of this Agreement. Any and all amendments to these documents shall not change the terms and conditions of this Agreement.

18.4 Members of the bargaining unit, in their professional roles as teachers, scholars, and colleagues, accept the obligation to exercise sound judgement in using, extending, and transmitting knowledge, to practice intellectual honesty, and to treat students, employees, and guests fairly and with respect, in accord with the standards of expectation of their respective disciplines and the University Statement of Professional Ethics for Faculty, as this document exists upon the execution of this Agreement. Any and all amendments to this document shall not change the terms and conditions of this Agreement.
Article 19
PROFESSIONAL COMMITMENT

19.1 Bargaining unit members will fulfill their duties in research, teaching, librarianship, and service consistent with the terms of their appointments, relevant university policies and procedures associated with the comprehensive faculty role that are not inconsistent with the terms of this Agreement, and in accordance with Article 20, Workload. Bargaining unit members will comply with the University Faculty Research and Consulting Act, 110 ILCS 100 and the State Officials and Employees Ethics Act (SOEEA), 5 ILCS 430.
Article 20
WORKLOAD

20.1 Definitions and Principles

A comprehensive faculty workload is comprised of the combination of the following categories:

a. Teaching, or Librarianship, or Credit-Hour Equivalent Activities (henceforth referred to as CHEs)
b. Research and/or scholarship and/or artistic work
c. University service, professional service, and/or public service

20.2 Maximum Workload for Teaching and CHEs

With the exception of the provision in Section 3.C. of this Article, the workload of bargaining unit members shall not exceed the equivalent of 18 CHEs per academic year. This assumes that bargaining unit members also engage in research and/or scholarship and/or artistic work, University service, professional service, and/or public service, and meet accreditation and/or certification requirements that apply to them.

20.3 Adjustments to Workload for Teaching and CHEs

a. Nothing in this Agreement shall be construed as preventing the Employer from assigning bargaining unit members fewer than 18 CHEs in an academic year.

b. Except by mutual agreement between the bargaining unit member and department chair, and/or except where otherwise specified by department workload policies developed through shared governance, bargaining unit members shall be assigned reduced teaching loads to continue high levels of research and/or scholarly and/or artistic productivity in accordance with department workload policies that have been formally approved by appropriate shared governance processes and in existence upon the execution of this agreement. Departments may develop workload adjustments for high levels of research, scholarly, artistic and creative productivity in accordance with section 20.5 of this Article.

c. Upon mutual agreement between the bargaining unit member and the Employer, the Employer may assign more than 18 CHEs or equivalent teaching workload per academic year to allow bargaining unit members to maximize their strengths and/or pursue other activities that support the University mission, goals, and needs of the department/school in accordance with any college, department, or school workload policy, this Agreement, and the approved university workload policy. The Employer shall inform the Union of all such agreements before the first working day of the semester in which the Agreement begins.
Article 20
WORKLOAD (Cont’d)

d. Unless by mutual agreement between the bargaining unit member and the chair/supervisor, a tenure-track bargaining unit member shall receive a teaching load reduction of one course, or three credit hours, each academic year during the first two (2) years of their probationary periods to commit time to research, scholarship, and/or artistic work.

20.4 Workload Policies

a. All colleges, departments, schools, or other governing units are authorized to develop new and amend existing workload policies in accordance with this Agreement and in alignment with the University Faculty Workload Policy and Guidelines.

Policies related to workload should stipulate, when practical and where applicable, how online course preparation, online teaching, class sizes, and contact hours related to online teaching shall be counted in bargaining unit members’ workloads.

b. When practical, colleges and departments should have workload policies that account for CHEs in bargaining unit member workloads.

c. Colleges and departments without an existing workload policy may develop workload policies. Such policies shall be developed and approved by the departmental faculty and Department Chair in accordance with department bylaws, faculty governance procedures, the University workload policy, and this Agreement. Department Workload Policies shall be approved by the appropriate Dean and College Council. College Workload Policies shall be approved by the Executive Vice President and Provost and the University Council Personnel Committee. Approved college and departmental Faculty Workload Policies shall be added to each college and department’s bylaws or personnel policies.

d. Colleges and departments without an existing Workload Policy shall utilize the University Workload Policy to determine CHEs.

20.5 Amendments to Workload Policies

a. Departments may amend Workload Policies. These amendments shall be developed and approved in accordance with the requirements in the department bylaws or faculty governance procedures and in compliance with the College and University Workload Policies, and this Agreement. Amendments to department workload policy shall be approved by the Dean and College Council. Whenever a Workload Policy is amended at the department level and approved by the Dean and College Council, the Employer shall distribute any amended policy to the departmental faculty, and provide the Union with an electronic copy of the final approved policy.

b. The appropriate dean may develop amendments to college workload policies in consultation with the College Council and College Senate. The college workload policy shall be in accordance with University Workload Policy and approved by the University Council Personnel Committee and Executive Vice President and Provost. The dean shall distribute the approved amendments to the college workload policies to the relevant bargaining unit members, and to the Union for comment. The Dean shall distribute the new college workload policy to the appropriate department chairs, appropriate bargaining unit members, and provide the Union with an electronic copy of the final approved policy.

c. The Provost may develop amendments to university workload policies in accordance with the University By-laws and Constitution. The Provost shall distribute proposed amendments to university workload policies to the relevant bargaining unit members, and to the Union, for comment. The University Council must approve any changes to university workload policy. If the University Council approves changes to the university workload policy, the Provost shall distribute the new university workload policy to the deans, department chairs, faculty, and provide the Union with an electronic copy of the final approved policy.

d. Any changes to workload policies must conform to the terms of this Agreement.

20.6 Assignment of Workloads

Each Department Chair/Head or equivalent shall assign workload to bargaining unit members in accordance with approved department, college, and University Workload Policies, and this Agreement.
Article 20

20.7 Specific Situations

a. Upon approval of the Chair and Dean in consultation with the bargaining unit member, the bargaining unit member may be assigned to engage in teaching or CHEs for departments other than their own, provided the bargaining unit member has relevant skill and expertise. Those credit hours and CHEs shall be considered part of the bargaining unit member’s workload.

b. For courses that are assigned by the bargaining unit member’s Department Chair to be taught by more than one faculty member, and in which all participating faculty are assigned to teach throughout the entire term, each bargaining unit member who teaches the course shall receive teaching credit for the full credit hours for the course. For courses in which a bargaining unit member participates on an intermittent basis or for less than the entire term, as assigned by the department chair, the credit hour teaching workload shall be prorated, with approval by the department chair, based on the contact hours and/or overall responsibilities for which the bargaining unit member was assigned.

c. For bargaining unit members with joint appointments, a document shall specify how responsibilities for assigning workload will be shared between the unit chairs/directors. This document shall be signed by the chairs or directors involved, the dean(s) of the appropriate college(s), and the bargaining unit member with the joint appointment. In the event that the units involved in the joint appointments have Departmental Workload Policies, the same document shall clarify how those standards will be applied to the bargaining unit member with the joint appointment.

20.8 Summer Assignments and Overload Assignments

a. For bargaining unit members on less than a 12-month contract, summer assignments are not considered part of the bargaining unit members’ workload; they are separate and distinct. Bargaining unit members may accept summer assignments for additional compensation as per Article 27 Compensation for Summer Teaching of this Agreement.

b. The Employer shall not compel bargaining unit members to accept summer assignments.

c. With the mutual written consent of the Chair (or unit Director) and the bargaining unit member, the Employer may assign summer duties to members of the bargaining unit as part of the workload as defined in Sections 20.2 and 20.3 of this Article. In such cases, the Employer shall provide the Union with a copy of the written consent.
Article 20
WORKLOAD (Cont’d)

d. Overload Assignments

i. Bargaining unit members who accept teaching assignments and/or CHEs above the limits specified in Sections 20.2 and 20.3 of this Article or existing practice, shall be provided with a supplemental contract for an amount specified in this agreement and in accordance with existing practice, approved University Policy, and Article 26 Compensation for Overload Teaching of this Agreement.

20.9 Library Workload

a. The average workload for library bargaining unit members shall be 37.5 hours per week. The parties recognize that, as professional employees, the number of hours worked by full-time bargaining unit members in order to fulfill their assigned responsibilities, as enumerated in their position description, may fluctuate from week to week. The scheduling of bargaining unit members’ working hours shall be the right of the Department Head or Associate Dean. The development of a bargaining unit member’s working schedule shall take into account the following factors: the need of the Libraries to perform its service obligations to the University community, the bargaining unit member’s professional specialization, and the preferences of the bargaining unit member. To the extent possible, there shall be equitable treatment in the scheduling of bargaining unit members’ hours.

b. Tenured and tenure track library faculty shall receive up to a 20% reduction in their workload to engage in research activity as outlined in Appendix II, Section IIC of the Policies and Procedures for the University Libraries Faculty as in place upon execution of this Agreement. Any and all amendments to Appendix II, Section IIC of the Policies and Procedures for the University Libraries Faculty shall not change the terms and conditions of this Agreement.

c. Unless by mutual agreement between the bargaining unit member and the chair/supervisor, tenure-track library bargaining unit members shall receive an additional 10% reduction in workload time during the first two years of their probationary periods.
Article 21
TENURE AND PROMOTION

Preamble

The tenure and promotion process at NIU emphasizes the role of faculty in evaluating the performance and accomplishments of peers. The process for making tenure and promotion decisions is a dual track system with faculty and administrators with academic rank comprising the two distinct tracks, each with its distinct evaluation. This system originates at the department level and progresses through the college and university levels to final on-campus recommendation by the President of NIU.

21.1 Only the Board of Trustees may award tenure and/or promotion to bargaining unit members.

21.2 Decisions regarding tenure and/or promotion shall be made in accordance with department, college, and university policies and procedures on tenure and promotion, and the University Board of Trustees Regulations, Constitution and By-Laws. Changes to such policies and procedures must be approved through shared governance, and shall not change the terms of this Agreement.

21.3 In any disagreement over tenure and/or promotion recommendations, the bargaining unit member shall have the right to Union representation.

21.4 Appeal and Grievance

a. A bargaining unit member who claims that tenure and/or promotion was not recommended based on a violation of the Non-Discrimination Article 32 of this Agreement, or one’s political views and affiliations as per section 7.2.1.3 of Article 7 in the NIU bylaws at the time of this agreement, can appeal the decision to the University Council Personnel Committee as per Article 7.2 of the NIU bylaws that is in place upon execution of this Agreement.

b. A bargaining unit member who alleges that tenure and/or promotion was not supported due to improper procedures, including the application of the criteria for tenure and/or promotion, may ask for a reconsideration and/or reassessment and/or appeal as per Article 7 of the NIU bylaws in place upon execution of this Agreement. Any and all amendments to Article 7 of the NIU bylaws shall not change the terms and conditions of this Agreement.

c. If tenure and promotion are recommended by the department and college with no disagreement, and the NIU President does not recommend tenure and/or promotion, the President’s decision shall be subject to the Grievance Procedure under Article 22 of this Agreement.

d. Except for the provisions in 21.4 c of this Article, any dispute a bargaining unit member or the Union may have relating to tenure and/or promotion shall be handled under the Board of Trustees Regulations, Constitution and Bylaws and department, college, and university reconsideration and/or reassessment and/or appeals procedures, and are not subject to the Grievance Procedure under Article 22 of this Agreement.
Article 22
GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE

22.1 Purpose

The purpose of this Article is to establish a prompt and efficient procedure for the investigation and resolution of grievances. The procedure set forth herein shall be the sole and exclusive method of resolving grievances for bargaining unit members except as otherwise provided by law. Nothing in this Article discourages or prohibits the informal discussion of a dispute before the filing of a formal grievance.

22.2 Grievance Definition

a. A grievance is an allegation by a bargaining unit member, or members, or by the Union, that there has been a violation or improper application of the provisions of this Agreement.

b. All provisions of this Agreement are subject to this Grievance Procedure, except as expressly excluded by this Agreement. No grievance shall be considered under this procedure unless it is presented as provided below.

22.3 Notification of Union Officials

The Union shall furnish the Employer with the name of the Grievance Officer, as it becomes available, but not later than August 1 of each academic year. The Union shall also inform the Employer in writing if the Grievance Officer changes.

22.4 Representation

a. Bargaining unit members may have representatives from the Union at any and every step of this Grievance Procedure.

b. A bargaining unit member may also represent himself or herself in a grievance at Step 1 and Step 2 under this Article. If a bargaining unit member chooses to represent herself or himself, he or she shall inform the Union and the Employer at the time of filing. The Union Grievance Officer shall be notified by the Employer at least 24 hours in advance of any meeting related to such filing. The Union shall have the right to have an observer present at all such meetings. No resolution of a grievance in which a bargaining unit member represents herself or himself shall be inconsistent with the terms of this Agreement, nor shall any such resolution be construed as establishing precedent or as a change to any established practice.
Article 22
GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE (Cont’d)

22.5 Basic Principles

a. A bargaining unit member who participates in the Grievance Procedure shall not be subject to retaliation because of such participation.

b. The parties recognize that day-to-day problems may be discussed between bargaining unit members and supervisors. Such informal discussions are encouraged but shall have no effect upon the time limits set forth in this Agreement.

c. The various time limits set forth in this Article may be extended only by the mutual written agreement of the Employer and the Union.

d. A grievance may be processed by the Union on behalf of a bargaining unit member or on behalf of a group of bargaining unit members. The resolution of a grievance filed on behalf of a group of bargaining unit members shall be made applicable to the appropriate bargaining unit members within that group.

e. This Article does not preclude bargaining unit members from pursuing a remedy through existing statutory or administrative mechanisms, or existing campus appeal procedures established under shared governance.

f. The resolution of any issue by way of an existing statutory or administrative mechanism, or existing campus appeal procedure established under shared governance, shall not add to, subtract from, or modify the terms of this Agreement, or serve as a binding precedent in future interpretation or application of the terms of this Agreement.

g. The following matters for which there are existing appeal procedures shall not be subject to this Grievance Procedure:
   1. Sabbaticals
   2. Library Fines
   3. Library Carrels

h. Findings of Research Misconduct investigations shall be subject to existing appeals procedures and shall not be subject to this Grievance Procedure. However, if the Employer imposes discipline on a bargaining unit member as a result of the finding of a Research Misconduct investigation, the discipline may be subject to this Grievance Procedure.
Article 22
GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE (Cont’d)

i. Findings of Ethics and Compliance investigations shall be subject to existing appeals procedures and shall not be subject to this Grievance Procedure. However, if the Employer imposes discipline on a bargaining unit member as a result of the finding of an Ethics and Compliance investigation, the discipline may be subject to this Grievance Procedure.

j. The application and limits of this Grievance Procedure regarding tenure and promotion procedures and decisions are described in the Tenure and Promotion Article 21 of this Agreement.

22.6 Grievance Steps and Time Limits

a. If the grievance is not resolved through informal discussion, the grievant (or Union) shall have twenty (20) working days from the date that the grievant (or Union) became aware of the event(s) on which the grievance is based, to file a written grievance with the bargaining unit member’s immediate supervisor.

b. The written grievance should contain the following information:

1. specific description of the dispute,
2. the facts giving rise to the dispute,
3. a listing of the article(s) and section(s) of the Agreement violated,
4. a statement as to how the article(s) and section(s) were violated,
5. the date of the violation, and
6. requested remedy.

c. Within ten (10) working days of receipt of the written grievance, the supervisor shall schedule a meeting with the grievant and his/her Union representative to hear their grievance. During this meeting, the parties shall have the right to present any evidence and information relevant to the grievance. The supervisor, or designee, shall meet with the grievant (and his/her Union representative, if so desired by the grievant) and shall provide a written decision on the grievance to the grievant and the Union, within ten (10) working days after the meeting.
GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE (Cont’d)

Step 2.

a. In the event the grievance is not resolved in Step 1, the decision may be appealed to the appropriate Dean, or designee provided such appeal is made in writing within ten (10) working days after receipt of the decision in Step 1. The Dean shall schedule a meeting to hear the grievance within ten (10) working days of the filing of the Step 2 appeal. During this meeting, the parties shall have the right to present any evidence and information relevant to the grievance. Within ten (10) working days after the Step 2 meeting, the appropriate Dean or designee shall issue a decision in writing to the Union and the grievant(s).

b. If the same Dean (or designee) was involved in the dispute giving rise to the grievance, that Dean (or designee) shall be recused from any involvement in Step 2.

Step 3.

a. In the event the grievance is not resolved in Step 2, the decision may be appealed to the Office of the Provost, or designee, provided such appeal is made in writing within ten (10) working days after receipt of the decision in Step 2. If a grievance has been appealed to Step 3, the Provost or designee shall schedule a meeting to hear the grievance within ten (10) working days of the filing of the Step 3 appeal. During this meeting, the parties shall have the right to present any evidence and information relevant to the grievance. Within ten (10) working days of the Step 3 meeting the Provost or designee shall issue a decision in writing to the Union and the grievant(s).

b. If the same Provost (or designee) was involved in the dispute giving rise to the grievance, that Provost (or designee) shall be recused from any involvement in Step 3.

Step 4. Mediation

a. If no resolution has been reached at Step 3, the Union and the Employer shall utilize the services of a mediator from the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Services (FMCS) to attempt to resolve the grievance. The parties may mutually agree to waive this step and proceed to the arbitration procedure.
Article 22
GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE (Cont’d)

b. Within ten (10) working days of the Step 3 decision, the Union and the Employer will schedule a mediation session through FMCS.

c. If the parties reach agreement in mediation, that agreement will be reduced to writing, and will be binding on the Union and the Employer.

22.7 Timelines and Adjustments

a. If the Employer fails to respond to a grievance within the applicable time limit, the grievant or Union may appeal the grievance to the next step.

b. Adjustment of Grievance Steps. Upon mutual agreement, the parties may agree to allow a grievance to be heard at Steps 2 or 3 as may be determined appropriate by the parties.

c. Stopping the Clock. The grievance clock may stop at any time, upon mutual agreement of the parties.

22.8 Arbitration Procedure

In the event that the grievance is not resolved in Steps 3 or 4, the decision can be appealed to arbitration.

a. Request.

1. If the grievance has not been resolved through mediation, the Union may submit the grievance for arbitration. The Union must deliver a notice of intent to arbitrate to the Employer’s office of Labor Relations within fifteen (15) working days of the final mediation session on the grievance.

b. Selection of Arbitrator.

1. Upon submission of a request for arbitration, the parties may, within ten (10) working days after the request to arbitrate, attempt to agree upon an arbitrator.

2. In the event the parties are unable to agree upon the arbitrator within said ten (10) working-day period, the parties shall jointly request the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Services (FMCS) to submit a panel of five (5) arbitrators, all of whom are members of the National Academy of Arbitrators. Each party retains the right to reject one panel in its entirety and request that a new panel be submitted. Both the Employer and the Union shall alternatively strike names until a single name remains. The Union shall strike the first name. The person remaining shall be the arbitrator. The parties shall promptly notify the arbitrator of his/her selection.
Article 22

c. Hearing. The grievance shall be heard by a single arbitrator and both parties may be represented by such persons as they may designate, and the parties shall have the right to a hearing at which time both parties will have the opportunity to submit evidence, offer testimony, and make oral or written arguments relating to the issues before the arbitrator.

d. Decision. The arbitrator so selected shall confer with the Employer and Union representatives and hold hearings promptly and shall issue her/his decision not later than thirty (30) calendar days from the date of the close of the hearings or, if written briefs have not been waived, then from the date the final statements and proofs on the issues are submitted to her/him. The arbitrator’s decision shall be in writing and shall set forth her/his findings of fact, reasoning, and conclusions on the issues submitted. The arbitrator’s authority shall be limited to determining whether the Employer has violated arbitrable provisions of this contract. The arbitrator shall not have jurisdiction or authority to add to, amend, modify, nullify, or ignore in any way the provisions of this contract nor shall the arbitrator have the authority to review any academic judgment. To the extent that the Employer’s action is based upon academic judgment, the arbitrator shall have no authority or jurisdiction to substitute his/her judgment for that of the Employer and its agents. The decision of the arbitrator shall be submitted to the parties and, if it is rendered in accordance with the provisions of this section, shall be final and binding on the parties.

e. Expenses. The cost for the services of the arbitrator, including per diem expenses, if any, and actual and necessary travel and subsistence expenses shall be borne equally by the Employer and the Union. Any other expenses incurred shall be paid by the party incurring the same.
Article 23

PROGRESSIVE DISCIPLINE

23.1 Preamble

a. The Employer and the Union support collegiality and shared governance and strive to maintain that as a mainstay of its institutional culture. NIU is a community of those whose varied functions, responsibilities, and contributions are supportive of the instructional, research, and service mission of the institution. This is promoted by the integrity and commitment of bargaining unit members mindful of their rights and responsibilities in their interactions. From time to time, it may be necessary for the Employer to take action with respect to a bargaining unit member who engages in conduct incompatible with the responsibilities of faculty membership or, following unsuccessful attempts at remediation, repeatedly demonstrates professional performance in teaching, research, and service that does not meet expectations. The purpose of such actions is to promote a safe and productive work environment for all members of the institution as well as comply with applicable laws, policies and procedures. The Employer and the Union subscribe to the tenets of progressive discipline.

b. In all cases in which a bargaining unit member could potentially be disciplined, the Employer shall use the seven just cause standards as established in Arbitrator Daugherty’s award in the Enterprise Wire Co. (46LA 359, 1966), (Appendix B), to determine if just cause exists.

c. The Employer shall not take disciplinary action against a bargaining unit member for conduct, unless substantially related to the fitness of the bargaining unit member to engage in teaching, research, service or other assigned duties.

d. Whenever possible, before discipline is imposed, bargaining unit members shall be provided with opportunity for remediation.

23.2 Notification

The Employer will notify a bargaining unit member and the Union that there is reason to believe that there may be grounds for discipline within twenty (20) working days of the Provost Office or the Human Resources Services Office being advised regarding the matter.

23.3 Union Representation

Bargaining unit members shall have the right to have a Union representative present at all meetings that the bargaining unit member is required to attend regarding a potential disciplinary action. If a Union representative is not available, the bargaining unit member has the right to a reasonable delay in scheduling a disciplinary meeting until a Union representative is available.
Article 23
PROGRESSIVE DISCIPLINE (Cont’d)

23.4 Grounds for Discipline

A bargaining unit member may be disciplined for cause on grounds, including but not limited to:

a. a determination based on an investigation that a bargaining unit member engaged in intellectual dishonesty;

b. a determination based on an investigation of a complaint that a bargaining unit member has violated the NIU Responsible Conduct of Research policy;

c. a determination based on an investigation of a complaint that a bargaining unit member has violated the NIU Ethics in the Workplace Policy;

d. a determination based on an investigation of a complaint that a bargaining unit member has engaged in an act or acts of discrimination, including harassment, prohibited by law or University policy;

e. a determination based on an investigation of a complaint that a bargaining unit member has engaged in theft or misuse of University resources;

f. a determination based on an investigation of a complaint that a bargaining unit member has failed to address a lapse of their professional qualifications;

g. a determination based on an investigation of a complaint that a bargaining unit member has failed to perform reasonable assigned duties;

h. a determination based on an investigation of a complaint that a bargaining unit member has used professional authority to exploit others;

i. a determination based on an investigation of a complaint that a bargaining unit member has violated University policy substantially related to performance of responsibilities;

j. a determination based on an investigation of a complaint that a bargaining unit member has exhibited threatening or intimidating behavior; and

k. a conviction for a violation of law(s) substantially related to the fitness of bargaining unit members to engage in teaching, research, service or other assigned duties.
Article 23
PROGRESSIVE DISCIPLINE (Cont’d)

23.5 Informal Steps

a. The Employer encourages the maintenance of a positive employee relationship that includes effective communication and feedback between bargaining unit members and between bargaining unit members and their supervisors. Informal attempts to resolve concerns should occur in most cases, where appropriate, prior to taking a formal disciplinary action. The purpose of such informal attempts is to reconcile disputes and concerns early and informally, when that is appropriate, by clarifying the issues involved, resolving misunderstandings, considering alternatives, and noting applicable policies and procedures.

b. As part of the informal step, the Chair/Director/Supervisor or designee will meet with the bargaining unit member to discuss relevant issues and/or concerns and provide the bargaining unit member with an opportunity to respond. The bargaining unit member has the right to Union representation at this meeting. If the parties agree to resolve the matter, within ten (10) working days of the meeting the Chair/Director/Supervisor or designee shall document the agreed upon resolution and provide a copy to the bargaining unit member. A copy of the resolution shall be maintained by the Chair/Director/Supervisor. If the parties do not agree to a resolution, the Employer may choose to proceed with formal disciplinary steps.

23.6 Process to Initiate Minor or Serious Discipline

a. In cases where informal attempts to resolve concerns were not successful and the Chair/Director/Supervisor determines that it is necessary to pursue a minor disciplinary action, the Employer shall notify the Union and the bargaining unit member of the date, time, location, and subject of the pre-disciplinary meeting, and the right of the bargaining unit member to bring a Union representative to the meeting to discuss the concern and the potential for discipline. If a Union representative is not available, the bargaining unit member has the right to a reasonable delay in scheduling a pre-disciplinary meeting until a Union representative is available.

b. Documentation regarding the minor disciplinary action will be placed in the bargaining unit member’s personnel file.

c. Should the Employer issues a verbal reprimand to the bargaining unit member that shall not be subject to the Grievance Procedure (Article 22) in this agreement. Other minor disciplinary actions may be appealed to steps 1, 2 and 3 of the Grievance Procedure Article 22.6 in this Agreement but may not be advanced to any higher step.
d. If, after two (2) years following the incident or incidents that gave rise to the minor disciplinary action, there have been no other incidents warranting discipline, the bargaining unit member may request (in accordance with 820ILCS 40/Personnel Records Review Act) the Employer to remove all documentation related to the disciplinary action from the bargaining unit member’s personnel file(s), and the Employer will not utilize the previous disciplinary action in determining a penalty for any new situation necessitating disciplinary action.

23.6.2 Serious Discipline

a. Serious discipline consists of suspension with or without pay, temporary or permanent reduction in appointment, restitution, temporary loss of privileges, denial of discretionary resources, or withholding/reduction of pay increases.

b. If the Employer believes it is necessary to undertake serious disciplinary action, the Employer shall notify the Union and the bargaining unit member of the date, time, location, and subject of the pre-disciplinary meeting, and the right of the bargaining unit member to bring a Union representative to the meeting to discuss the concern and the potential for discipline. If a Union representative is not available, the bargaining unit member has the right to a reasonable delay in scheduling a disciplinary meeting until a Union representative is available.

c. Notifications regarding potential serious discipline shall be via university email and shall include the reason(s) for the recommendation. The bargaining unit member will be provided with an opportunity to be represented by the Union and to respond to the recommendation for serious discipline during a pre-discipline meeting to be conducted by the appropriate administrator. The bargaining unit member may be disciplined based on the determination made as a result of the meeting.

d. Documentation regarding the serious disciplinary action will be placed in the bargaining unit member’s personnel file. Serious disciplinary actions are subject to the Grievance Procedure, Article 22 of this Agreement. Serious disciplinary actions are not appealable to any other University appeals process.

e. If, after four (4) years following the incident or incidents that gave rise to the serious disciplinary action, there have been no other incidents warranting discipline, the bargaining unit member may request (in accordance with 820 ILCS 40/Personnel Records Review Act) the Employer to remove all documentation related to the disciplinary action from the bargaining unit member’s personnel file(s), and the Employer will not utilize the previous disciplinary action in determining a penalty for any new situation necessitating disciplinary action.
Article 23
PROGRESSIVE DISCIPLINE (Cont’d)

23.7 Suspension with Pay

In cases where a bargaining unit member’s conduct poses a significant risk of harm to others or where other circumstances warrant, the bargaining unit member may be relieved of duties and suspended with pay while the matter is being investigated. If the Employer suspends a bargaining unit member with pay, the Employer shall notify the Union within one working day of the suspension.

23.8 Dismissal for Cause Process

a. In egregious cases of wrongdoing, or where repeated attempts at progressive discipline have not been successful, the appropriate administrator may elect to initiate dismissal for cause procedures.

b. The bargaining unit member shall be notified of the intent to recommend dismissal for cause and the notification shall set forth the specific facts and/or reasons for the recommendation to initiate dismissal for cause procedures. Prior to the dismissal of a bargaining unit member, the Provost shall consult with an ad hoc committee comprised of three (3) members of the bargaining unit appointed by the UFA President and three (3) members of the academic administration with tenured faculty status appointed by the Provost. Within ten (10) working days of the notification of the intent to recommend dismissal for cause procedures or such later date as agreed to by the parties, the ad hoc committee shall convene a hearing at which the Provost or designee shall present the basis for the dismissal. The bargaining unit member shall be present at the ad hoc committee hearing and shall have an opportunity to respond to the charges which are the basis for the proposed dismissal. The bargaining unit member shall be provided with an opportunity to be represented by the Union at the ad hoc committee hearing. The ad hoc committee will prepare a written report regarding the matter for consideration by the Provost.

c. Based on the pre-dismissal meeting, the Provost will make one of the following determinations on the case and notify the bargaining unit member: 1) cause for dismissal exists and is warranted, 2) a lesser disciplinary action may be imposed instead of dismissal, or 3) dismissal for cause is not warranted.

d. If the determination is to impose a disciplinary action other than dismissal, the Employer shall notify the bargaining unit member and the Union of the disciplinary action and its effective date. Documentation regarding the disciplinary action will be placed in the bargaining unit member’s personnel file.

e. If the determination is dismissal for cause, the Provost shall forward the report of the ad hoc committee to the President for approval. Upon the approval of the President, the recommendation will be forwarded to the Board of Trustees for formal action.
Article 23
PROGRESSIVE DISCIPLINE (Cont’d)

f. The dismissal decision may be implemented following formal action by the Board of Trustees. Upon the implementation of a dismissal decision by the Board of Trustees, the bargaining unit member may be removed from all university duties and payrolls. If the bargaining unit member prevails in a grievance over dismissal, the Employer will provide any compensation required by the award.

g. With the exceptions of the provisions in 23.6 c. of this article, all disciplinary action is subject to the Grievance Procedure, Article 22, of this Agreement.
Article 24
SALARY

24.1 2018-2019 Academic Year (FY 2019)

Effective upon the execution of this agreement, increases shall be made so that the base annual salary of bargaining unit members shall not be less than $60,000 for Assistant Professors, $65,000 for Associate Professors, and $75,000 for Full Professors.

24.2 2019-2020 Academic Year (FY 2020)

a. A 3.0% increase shall be applied to the base annual salary of all bargaining unit members.

Preamble

The purpose of the MOU is to memorialize the understandings that the parties have about how the extraordinary circumstances affect the existing collective bargaining agreement. Neither party is attempting to use the COVID-19 pandemic as a way to leverage any advantage. The parties note that, because the pandemic is a dynamic situation, further bargaining may be needed to address future developments.

General Terms of the MOU

Unless otherwise agreed to herein, this document is intended to address the extraordinary circumstances of the COVID-19 pandemic as established in the Governor’s Executive Order, all terms of the current collective bargaining agreement will remain in place. This agreement has been created on a non-precedent setting basis. Consequently, it does not establish any precedent with regard to how any future comparable situations may be addressed.

The transition to non-face-to-face instruction

The parties acknowledge that the move from face-to-face classes in Spring 2020 to remote learning platforms is a temporary measure in response to COVID-19.

Moving a course to non-face-to-face instruction during the pandemic sets no precedent for that course being taught online once the Employer returns to regular operations.

In the transition to remote learning in response to the pandemic, for any course materials bargaining unit members move to Employer online platforms, the parties agree that they are “traditional academic copyrightable works” as defined in the Employer’s Intellectual Property Policy (Section I, Item 6 IIe, also referenced in article 14 of the collective bargaining agreement). As specified in the Employer’s Intellectual Property Policy (Section I, Item 6 IV.b) the employer shall not claim ownership to “traditional academic copyrightable works.”

The Employer will hold bargaining unit members harmless for any unintentional data breach that might occur, that is not willful or negligent on the part of the bargaining unit member, when they are using equipment that is not issued by the Employer.

Student Evaluations of Instruction

The Employer shall conduct student evaluations of instruction consistent with university policy. Each bargaining unit member may decide whether they want to have the student evaluations of instruction from the Spring 2020 Semester used in current and future evaluations of their performance.

Evaluations of teaching
If a bargaining unit member chooses to report their Spring 2020 student course evaluation data in their Faculty Service Report for 2020, those data will be utilized in evaluating the member’s teaching effectiveness. If the bargaining unit member chooses not to report their Spring 2020 student course evaluation data in their Faculty Service Report for 2020, departments, schools and colleges will not use the lack of reported data to inform evaluations. Bargaining unit members shall not be disadvantaged as a result of a decision not to utilize student course evaluations during Spring 2020. Units are encouraged to appropriately address this in personnel processes within their department and school.

Evaluations of scholarly, research, artistic, and creative work

The parties acknowledge that the pandemic could have a negative effect on the productivity of bargaining unit members in their scholarly, research, artistic, and creative work.

The effects of the disruptions caused by the pandemic on the research programs of bargaining unit members may have ramifications beyond the Spring 2020 Semester.

Departmental, college and university bodies that evaluate the research, artistic and creative activity of bargaining unit members shall take into account the short-term and long-term effects of the pandemic when making decisions evaluating bargaining unit members. Because of these circumstances, the university will grant an automatic one-year extension to the tenure probationary period for all current probationary tenure-track faculty. The requirements for earning tenure and promotion will not be affected by this extension. Faculty who wish to remain on their original tenure schedule may opt-out of this extension and stay on their originally probationary schedule. Current probationary tenure-track faculty who have not yet had their third-year review at this time of this agreement will automatically have their third-year reviews extended by one year unless they communicate to their chair that they wish to opt out of the one-year extension to the tenure probationary period.

In the evaluation of 2020 Faculty Service Reports, Research, Scholarship, and/or Artistry will be evaluated using existing department/school criteria. In Faculty Service Reports, bargaining unit members may note reduced activity due to the effects of the pandemic. Units are encouraged to appropriately address this in personnel processes within their department and school.

If a bargaining unit member had a conference paper or presentation accepted and the conference was cancelled in response to the pandemic, the Employer shall credit the bargaining unit member as if the paper had been given, consistent with discipline norms. In the visual and performing arts, if a bargaining unit member had a gallery show or performance cancelled due to the pandemic, the Employer shall credit the bargaining unit member as if the show or performance took place.

Sabbaticals

Sabbaticals that take place during the Spring 2020 response to the pandemic shall not be evaluated adversely due to pandemic-related issues.

Travel Expenses
The Employer shall not seek reimbursement from bargaining unit members for non-refundable conference or travel expenses paid by the Employer even if travel was cancelled due to COVID-19 consistent with Accounts Payable Services processes.

The Employer shall reimburse bargaining unit members for non-refundable conference or travel expenses incurred during Spring 2020 and previously approved by the Employer for travel that was cancelled due to COVID-19 consistent with Accounts Payable Services processes.

UFARPIF for FY 2020

Research funds requested for reimbursement for approved travel expenses for travel in FY 2020 that took place prior to the pandemic shall be disbursed.

Research funds requested for non-travel related activities (e.g., computing, software) in FY 2020, the use of which is not affected by the pandemic, shall be disbursed.

If conference attendance had been approved for FY 2020 and the conference has been moved online, funds for the registration fee and other non-travel related aspects (e.g., publication fees) shall be disbursed.

If a bargaining unit member was granted funding to a conference in FY 2020 that was cancelled, rescheduled or postponed, the appropriate college-level shared governance body is encouraged to give priority to that member in the next funding cycle to which they submit a proposal.

College-level shared governance bodies will determine how to allocate funding that was unable to be disbursed in FY 2020 consistent with Account Payable Services processes and Article 28.7.b of the Collective Bargaining Agreement.

UFARPIF for the first half of FY 2021

Proposals for non-travel related activities for the first half of FY 2021 shall be approved and funded according to college-level working rules.

Proposals for travel for the first half of FY 2021 shall be approved and funded according to college-level working rules.

If a proposal for conference attendance is approved but the conference is moved online, funds for the registration fee and other non-travel related aspects (e.g., publication fees) shall be disbursed.

If a bargaining unit member was granted funding to a conference in the first half of FY 2021 that was cancelled, rescheduled or postponed, the appropriate college-level shared governance body is encouraged to give priority to that member in the next funding cycle to which they submit a proposal.

Returning to regular operations

The Employer will inform the union as it considers returning to regular operations.
The Employer will utilize best practices consistent with the appropriate CDC and state of Illinois guidelines or regulations in cleaning, hygiene, and social distancing with respect to COVID-19 when reopening campus facilities. In the event that there is a conflict between CDC guidelines, which are advisory, and regulations mandated by the state of Illinois, NIU shall follow state of Illinois regulations.

Section 9. Health and Safety

a. This MOU is entered into with the intent of mitigating as many potential health and safety consequences of the return to in-person teaching upon UPI bargaining members as possible. The parties recognize that any effort to address health and safety during the pandemic can only function to reduce risk, not to eliminate it.

b. The parties agree that “NIU Protecting the Pack” is an advisory document related to health and safety issues in the classroom, on campus, in buildings, and COVID-19 testing.

c. Both parties recognize that NIU’s recommendations and policies in response to COVID-19 may change with public health guidance and new information about the virus. The employer shall establish an advisory committee with UFA representation that will review substantive revisions to the “Protecting the Pack” document and make recommendations regarding those revisions. The committee shall meet weekly, and in a timely manner upon specific request by either party. By mutual agreement, the Employer and the Union may cancel a weekly meeting.

10. COVID-19 Testing

a. The employer will provide surveillance COVID-19 testing for students residing on campus in NIU residential facilities and for those taking classes in which physical distancing and/or mask wearing may be difficult. The employer will provide COVID-19 testing for symptomatic students who live in NIU residential facilities.

1. Symptomatic testing:
   - Any employee(s) who normally works on campus or student(s) who normally has courses or activities on campus or who resides on campus in a NIU residential facility and who is showing symptoms of COVID-19, or who has been exposed (as determined through contact tracing) to someone who has tested positive for COVID-19 will be instructed not to come to campus except to be tested at the Health Center (if a student), and to seek guidance and testing from a health care provider. Students who pay the student health fee will be able to get a COVID-19 PCR test at the Northwestern Medicine Student Health Center at NIU’s on-campus testing site. If the student or employee does not have insurance to get tested or is experiencing other barriers (e.g., no transportation), testing may be arranged through the DeKalb County Health Department (DCHD). If testing is needed to mitigate a potential outbreak (e.g., a student in a residence hall tests positive), DCHD will facilitate testing to assist in containment.

2. Surveillance testing:

- Bridge Testing—NIU will partner with Northwestern Medicine to conduct 6,000 COVID-19 PCR nasal swab tests (600 per week for 10 weeks) for students living in NIU residential facilities and/or taking courses where physical distancing and/or mask wearing may be difficult. Additionally, the Employer’s intention is that faculty who teach those courses and select other employees who work in units in the residence halls (e.g., residential life, dining) will be part of the pool to be sampled. The testing will begin September 1 and will conclude once the saliva-based testing discussed below is implemented.

- Wastewater Testing—A wastewater surveillance program will be initiated this semester. This testing is a collaboration with the Kishwaukee Water Reclamation District, and will provide a longitudinal, broad surveillance of trends and potential spikes in SARS-CoV-2 incidence on campus and the city of DeKalb.

- Saliva-based Testing—As quickly as practicable, a saliva-based SARS-CoV-2 test in partnership with the University of Illinois, Northwestern Medicine and NIU will be initiated. This testing is designed to rapidly screen individuals in targeted populations for SARS-CoV-2 infection at specific intervals. The focus of this testing will be students living in NIU residence facilities, students taking courses in which physical distancing and/or mask wearing may be difficult, people who teach such courses, and other employees who work in residence halls.

b. All test results shall be available as quickly as practicable.

c. Employees and students who have tested positive for COVID-19 shall not to return to face to face classroom instruction until receiving authorization and guidance from a health provider or a Public Health Department.

d. Employer shall provide daily updates during days of normal university operations of positive COVID-19 cases within the student, faculty, and staff.

COVID-19 Spring Semester 2021

Preamble
The purpose of the MOU is to memorialize the understandings that the parties have about how the extraordinary circumstances affect the existing collective bargaining agreement. Neither party is attempting to use the COVID-19 pandemic as a way to leverage any advantage. The parties note that, because the pandemic is a dynamic situation, further bargaining may be needed to address future developments.

Section 4. Sabbaticals

a. Sabbaticals that take place during Spring 2021 shall not be evaluated adversely due to pandemic-related issues.

b. Sabbaticals for Spring of 2021 have been adequately addressed in the Fall 2020 MOU. Applications to Decline or Change a Sabbatical forms have been submitted and approved to allow sabbaticals to move to FY 2022.

COVID-19 Summer Semester 2021
Effective through August 15, 2021

Preamble: The purpose of the MOU is to memorialize the understandings that the parties have about how the extraordinary circumstances affect the existing collective bargaining agreement. Neither party is attempting to use the COVID-19 pandemic as a way to leverage any advantage. The parties note that, because the pandemic is a dynamic situation, further bargaining may be needed to address future developments.

General Terms of the MOU: Unless otherwise agreed to herein, this document is intended to address the extraordinary circumstances of the COVID-19 pandemic. All terms of the current collective bargaining agreement will remain in place. This agreement has been created on a non-precedent setting basis. Consequently, it does not establish any precedent with regard to how any future comparable situations may be addressed.

Section 1. Teaching modality and remote work for Summer 2021

a. Provided that the State of Illinois Coronavirus Response level continues at the Bridge or Phase 5 levels, the employer shall make determinations regarding course modality with input from bargaining unit members based upon program need, student success, and the health and safety of the NIU community. Should the State of Illinois Coronavirus Response level fall back to Phase 4 or lower during the Summer 2021 Semester, bargaining unit members shall have the right to change their course modality in consultation with their department chair.

A bargaining unit member who may need to change their course modality due to their own serious medical condition, an immediate family member with a serious medical condition, or a family member for which they are providing caretaker services may utilize existing university policies and procedures to pursue potential approval for a change in course modality. This may include the Work At Home policy, use of leave benefits, and/or an Americans With Disabilities Act accommodation, subject to approval under policy regulations.

b. In the event that a bargaining unit member moves a course with in-person components to a remote course during the summer, the bargaining unit member will do so with notification and collaboration with the chair/director/supervisor to ensure continuity of teaching for students.
c. Bargaining unit members shall not suffer retaliation in any departmental, college or university-wide process, including but not limited to scheduling, merit reviews and promotion and tenure evaluations, as the result of any change in course modality.

d. Moving a course to non-face-to-face instruction during the pandemic sets no precedent for that course being taught online once the Employer returns to regular operations. Chairs/Directors/Supervisors maintain the authority to make determinations regarding course scheduling.

e. The Employer shall not compel or direct bargaining unit members to attend in-person meetings or in-person events. Bargaining unit members shall not suffer retaliation in any departmental, college or university-wide process, including but not limited to scheduling, merit reviews, and promotion and tenure evaluations, for attending meetings remotely or for not attending in-person events.

Section 2. Evaluation of teaching a. Each bargaining unit member may decide whether they want to have the student evaluations of instruction from Summer 2021 used in current and future evaluations of their performance. The parties anticipate a return to normal operations as practical in the Fall 2021 Semester, including a return to the use of student course evaluation data in personnel processes.

b. If a bargaining unit member chooses to report their Summer 2021 student course evaluation data in their Faculty Service Report for 2021, those data shall be utilized in evaluating the member’s teaching effectiveness. If the bargaining unit member chooses not to report their Summer 2021 students course evaluation data in their Faculty Service Report for 2021, departments, schools and colleges shall not use the lack of reported data to inform evaluations. Bargaining unit members shall not be disadvantaged as a result of a decision not to utilize student course evaluations during Summer 2021. Units are encouraged to appropriately address this in personnel processes within their department and school.

Section 3. Evaluations of scholarly, research, artistic and creative work

a. The parties acknowledge that the pandemic could have a negative effect on the productivity of bargaining unit members in their scholarly, research, artistic and creative work.

b. The effects of the disruptions caused by the pandemic on the research programs of bargaining unit members may have ramifications beyond Summer 2021.

c. In the evaluations of 2021 Faculty Service Reports, research, scholarship and/or artistry shall be evaluated using existing department/school criteria. In Faculty Service Reports, bargaining unit members may note reduced activity due to the effects of the pandemic. Units are encouraged to appropriately address this in personnel processes within their department and school.

d. If a bargaining unit member had a conference paper for presentation accepted and the conference was cancelled in response to the pandemic, the Employer shall credit the bargaining unit member as if the paper had been given, consistent with discipline norms. In the visual and performing arts, if a bargaining unit member had a gallery show or performance cancelled due to the pandemic, the Employer shall credit the bargaining unit member as if the show or performance took place.

Section 4. UFARPIF expenses

a. The employer will continue to administer the UFARPIF in a manner consistent with the collective bargaining agreement, prior MOUs, and the August, 2020 Guidelines as established and agreed upon.

Section 5. Intellectual property

a. For any course materials bargaining unit members move to Employer online platforms, the parties agree that they are “traditional academic copyrightable works” as defined in the Employer’s Intellectual Property Policy (Section I, Item 6 II.e, also referenced in article 14 of the collective bargaining agreement). As specified in the Employer’s Intellectual Property Policy (Section I, Item 6 IV.b) the employer shall not claim ownership to “traditional academic copyrightable works.”

b. The Employer shall hold bargaining unit members harmless for any unintentional data breach that might occur, that is not wilful or negligent on the part of the bargaining unit member, when they are using equipment that is not issued by the Employer.

Section 6. Health and Safety

a. The administration shall provide a safe and healthy workplace for faculty, staff and students.

b. The parties agree that “NIU Protecting the Pack” is an advisory document related to health and safety issues in the classroom, on campus, in buildings, and COVID-19 testing.

c. The administration will continue to provide periodic updates regarding significant changes that may occur regarding COVID-19 procedures via labor management meetings and University communications.

d. Bargaining unit members shall have the option to stop instruction in any class session if they believe it is unsafe to continue.

e. All teaching rooms shall be thoroughly cleaned and disinfected on a daily basis by professional cleaning staff. Where possible, each classroom shall be supplied with disinfecting wipes. If that is not possible, the employer may provide a similar alternative to disinfecting wipes.
f. Bargaining unit members shall not suffer retaliation in any departmental, college or university-wide process, including but not limited to merit reviews and promotion and tenure evaluations, for requesting people to comply with safety rules.

g. Bargaining unit members shall not suffer retaliation in any departmental, college or university-wide process, including but not limited to merit reviews and promotion and tenure evaluations, for reporting violations of the Employer’s health and safety rules and guidelines.

h. The Employer warrants that it has installed portable air purifiers with High Efficiency Particulate Air (HEPA) filters in all spaces in which face to face teaching will take place. No later than July 19, 2021, the Employer shall provide the Union a list of which rooms have air purifiers installed. The Employer shall operate and maintain these air purifiers as necessary. Upon Union request, additional reports regarding air purifiers will be provided within five business days.

i. Prior to implementing changes in the Protecting the Pack procedures regarding classrooms for summer classes, classroom safety precautions or the use of face masks the Employer will provide advanced notification to the union regarding any changes.

7. COVID-19 Testing

a. The employer will continue to provide symptomatic and surveillance COVID-19 testing during Summer 2021. The employer will continue to test students, faculty, and staff as has been established during the Fall and Spring semesters.

b. Employees and students who have tested positive for COVID-19 shall not return to face-to-face classroom instruction until receiving authorization and guidance from a health provider or a Public Health Department.

c. The employer shall provide periodic updates during days of normal university operations of positive COVID-19 cases within the student, faculty, and staff via the Campus COVID-19 Dashboard.

d. Wastewater testing will continue in collaboration with the Kishwaukee Water Reclamation District and will provide a longitudinal, broad surveillance of trends and potential spikes in SARS-CoV-2 incidence on campus and the city of DeKalb.

e. Bargaining unit members included in surveillance testing protocols are required to comply with testing requirements.

8. Leave due to COVID-19

a. Bargaining unit members shall be eligible for Family First Coronavirus Response Act leave benefits in accordance with university procedures. The benefit program is currently available through September 30, 2021. The program is in addition to the bargaining unit member’s accumulated personal leave benefits.

Preamble: The purpose of the MOU is to memorialize the understandings that the parties have about how the extraordinary circumstances affect existing collective bargaining agreements. No party is attempting to use the COVID-19 pandemic as a way to leverage any advantage. The parties note that, because the pandemic is a dynamic situation, further bargaining may be needed to address future developments.

General Terms of the MOU: Unless otherwise agreed to herein, this document is intended to address the extraordinary circumstances of the COVID-19 pandemic. All terms of current collective bargaining agreements will remain in place. This agreement has been created on a non-precedent setting basis. Consequently, it does not establish any precedent with regard to how any future comparable situations may be addressed. Except where explicitly noted in Section 2, this MOU pertains to both United Faculty Alliance and the Instructors Union.

Section 1. Teaching modality and remote work for Academic Year 2021-2022

a. The employer shall make determinations regarding course modality with input from bargaining unit members based upon program need, student success, and the health and safety of the NIU community unless the State of Illinois Coronavirus Response level falls back to Phase 4 or lower during the 2021-2022 Academic Year, or, based upon NIU SHIELD surveillance testing, the weekly average campus positivity rate for days on which testing takes place reaches 8% or above. If the State of Illinois Coronavirus Response level falls back to Phase 4 or lower, or, based upon NIU SHIELD surveillance testing the weekly average campus positivity rate for days on which testing takes place reaches 8% or above, bargaining unit members shall have the right to change their course modality in consultation with their department chair. In the circumstances above, the determination regarding course modality reverts to the Employer if the conditions established above return to Phase 5 and a weekly campus surveillance testing positivity rate falls below 8%. Both parties agree that should course modalities change during a semester, clearly communicating such changes to students is an important priority for student success and well-being.

b. The employer shall allow immunocompromised bargaining unit members as defined by the CDC on the date of the execution of this agreement and as may be amended by the CDC, to work remotely until they are advised by their physician that it is safe for them to... return to work in person. The employer shall allow bargaining unit members who are primary care givers of an immunocompromised person as defined by the CDC on the date of the execution of this agreement and as may be amended by the CDC, to work remotely until they are advised by their physician that it is safe for them to return to work in person.

c. In the event that a bargaining unit member moves a course with in-person components to a remote course under the provisions of this agreement, the bargaining unit member will do so with notification and collaboration with the chair/director/supervisor to ensure continuity of teaching for students.

d. Bargaining unit members shall not suffer retaliation in any departmental, college or university-wide process, including but not limited to merit reviews, annual evaluations, and promotion and tenure evaluations, as the result of any change in course modality.

e. Moving a course to non-face-to-face instruction during the pandemic sets no precedent for that course being taught online once the Employer returns to regular operations. Chairs/Directors/Supervisors maintain the authority to make determinations regarding course scheduling.

f. The Employer shall not compel or direct bargaining unit members to attend in-person meetings or other in-person events. Bargaining unit members shall not suffer retaliation in any departmental, college or university-wide process, including but not limited to merit reviews, annual evaluations, and promotion and tenure evaluations, for attending meetings remotely or for not attending in-person events.

g. For any meeting with an in-person component, the Employer shall use a room large enough for physical distancing where practicable.

h. Bargaining unit members may hold virtual office hours instead of in-person office hours in consultation with the chair/director/supervisor.

i. Unless the bargaining unit member gives written permission (email is acceptable), the employer shall not schedule in-person students and remote students simultaneously in a class meeting. The employer shall not retaliate against bargaining unit members for their decisions about teaching in this manner.

j. Any bargaining unit member who is expected to teach in person and online shall be able to access training assistance through the Center for Innovative Teaching and Learning.

Section 2.1 Evaluation of teaching: Professorial Faculty

a. The parties acknowledge that the pandemic could have a negative effect on teaching. Units are encouraged to take this into account in evaluating 2021 and 2022 Faculty Service Reports.

b. UFA members who are teaching a dual modality course under the provisions of Section 1 (i) of this agreement for the first time (scheduled simultaneous online and in-person instruction for most class sessions) in either the Fall 2021 or Spring 2022 semester, have the right to not include student evaluations for that course in their Faculty Service Reports.
c. For bargaining unit members teaching in a dual modality course under the provisions of Section 1 (i) of this agreement for the first time (scheduled simultaneous online and in-person instruction for most class sessions) who chooses not to report their Fall 2021 students course evaluation data in their Faculty Service Report for 2021, departments, schools and colleges shall not use the lack of reported data to inform evaluations. Bargaining unit members shall not be disadvantaged as a result of a decision not to utilize student course evaluations during Fall 2021. Units are encouraged to appropriately address this in personnel processes within their department and school.

Section 2.2 Evaluation of teaching: Instructional Faculty a. The Employer shall conduct student evaluations consistent with university policy. Consistent with Article 7.2, Instructors must provide an Annual Service Report for 2021 to their Department Chair by February 15, 2022.

b. Department Chairs will assess 2021 student evaluation data for Instructors in their department compared to academic years 2017, 2018, and 2019, as data is available. If the 2021 mean student evaluation scores in a department are lower than the mean of those previous years, the Department Chair shall increase the student evaluation scores for all Instructors by the difference between the mean student evaluation scores in the department for 2017, 2018, and 2019, and the mean student evaluation scores in the department for 2021. The parties agree that the assessment of bargaining unit members in a pool that includes all the faculty in the department is a temporary measure in response to the pandemic and shall not set a precedent for future evaluations of bargaining unit members.

Section 3. Evaluations of scholarly, research, artistic and creative work

a. The parties acknowledge that the pandemic could have a negative effect on the productivity of UFA bargaining unit members in their scholarly, research, artistic and creative work.

b. The effects of the disruptions caused by the pandemic on the research programs of bargaining unit members may have future ramifications.

c. In the evaluations of 2021 Faculty Service Reports, research, scholarship and/or artistry shall be evaluated using existing department/school criteria. In Faculty Service Reports, bargaining unit members may note reduced activity due to the effects of the pandemic. Units are encouraged to appropriately address this in personnel processes within their department and school.

d. If a UFA bargaining unit member had a conference paper for presentation accepted and the conference was cancelled in response to the pandemic, the Employer shall credit the bargaining unit member as if the paper had been given, consistent with discipline norms. In the visual and performing arts, if a bargaining unit member had a gallery show or performance cancelled due to the pandemic, the Employer shall credit the bargaining unit member as if the show or performance took place.
Section 4. Intellectual property

a. For any course materials bargaining unit members move to Employer online platforms, the parties agree that they are “traditional academic copyrightable works” as defined in the Employer’s Intellectual Property Policy (Section I, Item 6 II.e, also referenced in article 14 of the collective bargaining agreement). As specified in the Employer’s Intellectual Property Policy (Section I, Item 6 IV.b) the employer shall not claim ownership to “traditional academic copyrightable works.”

b. The Employer shall hold bargaining unit members harmless for any unintentional data breach that might occur, that is not willful or negligent on the part of the bargaining unit member, when they are using equipment that is not issued by the Employer.

Section 5. Health and Safety

a. The administration shall provide a safe and healthy workplace for faculty, staff, and students.

b. The parties agree that “NIU Protecting the Pack” is an advisory document related to health and safety issues in the classroom, on campus, in buildings, and COVID-19 testing.

c. The administration will continue to provide periodic updates regarding significant changes that may occur regarding COVID-19 procedures via labor management meetings and University communications.

d. Bargaining unit members shall have the option to stop instruction in any class session if they believe it is unsafe to continue.

e. All teaching rooms shall be thoroughly cleaned and disinfected on a daily basis by professional cleaning staff. Where possible, each classroom shall be supplied with disinfecting wipes. If that is not possible, the employer may provide a similar alternative to disinfecting wipes.

f. Bargaining unit members shall not suffer retaliation in any departmental, college or university-wide process, including but not limited to merit reviews, annual evaluations and promotion and tenure evaluations, for requesting people to comply with safety rules.

h. The Employer warrants that it will install portable air purifiers with High Efficiency Particulate Air (HEPA) filters in all spaces in which face to face teaching will take place. The Employer shall operate and maintain these air purifiers as necessary. Should a bargaining unit member have a concern regarding the placement or operation of a HEPA filter the employer will investigate the matter as quickly as practicable.
i. Prior to implementing changes in the Protecting the Pack procedures regarding classrooms for Academic Year 21-22 Year classes, classroom safety precautions or the use of face masks the Employer shall provide advanced notification to the union regarding any changes.

j. If the state of Illinois requires face coverings in K-12 settings, the employer shall require face coverings in all teaching spaces and the University Libraries. If the state of Illinois ceases to require face coverings in K-12 settings, bargaining unit members may require the use of face coverings in their teaching spaces.

k. As announced by the Employer on June 23, 2021, unless exempted for medical, religious, or personal reasons students registering for Academic Year 21-22 face to face classes and/or who will live on campus must be fully vaccinated. Students exempt for the reasons above shall be required to wear a face covering in classes and all indoor public spaces. The Employer shall be responsible for monitoring and enforcing vaccination compliance.

l. Bargaining unit members who have a private office may require anyone who enters their office to wear a mask. Bargaining unit members who have a shared office may require anyone not sharing the office space who enters their office to speak to them to wear a mask.

d. The Employer shall, on or before September 7, 2021 provide the union the number of students registered for in-person classes and the percentage of those students who have been vaccinated.

e. Wastewater testing will continue in collaboration with the Kishwaukee Water Reclamation District and will provide a longitudinal, broad surveillance of trends and potential spikes in SARS-CoV-2 incidence on campus and the city of DeKalb.

f. Bargaining unit members included in surveillance testing protocols are required to comply with testing requirements.
Section 7. Leave due to COVID-19

a. Bargaining unit members shall be eligible for Family First Coronavirus Response Act leave benefits in accordance with university procedures. The benefit program is currently available through September 30, 2021. The program is in addition to the bargaining unit member’s accumulated personal leave benefits.
